BIOGRAPHIES

In little more than a decade, DOREEN RAO has established herself as one of North America's most celebrated conductors and teachers. Prior to her appointment as Director of Choral Programs at the University of Toronto, Doreen Rao held the dual position of assistant conductor of the Chicago Symphony Chorus and music director and conductor of the Glen Ellyn Children's Chorus. During her long association with the Chicago Symphony Orchestra and Chorus under Sir Georg Solti and Margaret Hillis, Doreen Rao prepared choruses for recordings that won four Grammy Awards and a Grand Prix du Disque. In addition, she prepared choruses for Claudio Abbado, James Levine, Daniel Barenboim, Helmuth Rilling, Leonard Slatkin, Michael Tilson Thomas and Edo de Waart.

Doreen Rao made her conducting debut at London's Royal Festival Hall in 1980, her New York conducting debut with the American Symphony Orchestra in 1985, and her Carnegie Hall debut with the Manhattan Philharmonic last May. Her many appearances as guest conductor and choral clinician in the United States, Canada, the United Kingdom, Scandinavia, Israel, and Africa have won her an avid and extensive following. Dr. Rao has also been a featured guest conductor for numerous university choral workshops, all-state choruses and international music festivals including the national conventions of the American Choral Directors' Association, the Music Educators' National Conference and the American Orff and Kodaly associations.

Dr. Rao is especially recognized for her commitment to performance-based music education and the future of choral music in the schools. She founded the ACDA National Committee on Children's Choirs in 1979 and served on the MENC National Committee on Standards in Music Education until 1985. She was honored by the YWCA as "Outstanding Leader in Arts and Culture" and by her colleagues of the American Choral Director's Association for "Her Commitment to Choral Excellence..." The Chicago Tribune described her as "a dedicated and innovative conductor...charged with enthusiasm." A CBS television documentary, Profiles of a Conductor, has called Rao's musical achievements "extraordinary".

Doreen Rao holds a Ph.D. from Northwestern University where she served as a research assistant and conductor of the Northwestern University Chorus. She is the author of Choral Music Experience, a comprehensive series of choral textbooks and music published by Boosey & Hawkes and co-author of the secondary choral textbook SING! published by Hinshaw Music.

KRISTA BUCKLAND is a 1990 graduate of the Faculty of Music, and a recipient of the Eaton Graduating Scholarship. She has performed as guest soloist with the University of Toronto Symphony Orchestra, the Oakville Symphony Orchestra, the York Symphony Orchestra, and the Scarborough Symphony Orchestra. Krista has also performed extensively in recital with "Triomphe", an ensemble comprised of fellow graduates Susan Greenway, piano, and Peter Stoll, clarinet. They have performed on the Roy Thompson Hall Cushion Concert Series, the Faculty Artists Series and, as winner of the CBC National Competition for Chamber Music, on CJRT-FM. Krista has participated in several festivals, including the Banff Festival, the Sarasota Festival and the Schleswig-Holstein Musik Festival, working with such artists as Leonard Bernstein, Christoph Eschenbach, Joseph Silverstein and Lorand Fenyves. Krista is currently enrolled in the Artists Diploma at the Royal Conservatory of Music, studying with Lorand Fenyves, and touring throughout Europe with the Schleswig-Holstein Kammer-Philharmonia.

ROSEMARY THOMSON recently graduated from the Faculty of Music with a Bachelor of Music Degree, where she studied piano with Margaret Parsons Poole and Choral conducting with Doreen Rao. She is presently enrolled in the special program in conducting, studying with Michel Tabachnik. For the past two years, she has been the assistant conductor of the University Symphony Chorus and, this year, she assumed leadership of the Royal Conservatory Children's Choir. In addition, she is the assistant conductor of the Oakville Symphony Orchestra, where she also plays in the cello section.
